It will be my story if ...

If I study very well and work hardly on my own projects, I'll can do really good portfolio for a future job. If I have a good portfolio, I'll get a not bad job as a programmer. If I work hardly at a job, I'll get a lot of money for my family and myself. If I have lots of money, I'll can to travel around the world with my family and to open a school for a musical business. If it all is happen, I'll can work with little artists until retirement and spend a lot of time with family. If my dream became reality, I'll really happy and can die peaceably.
